

VCS~SOS

A new community development project funded by South Norfolk Council and delivered in partnership with Norfolk Rural Community Council and Voluntary Norfolk.

- Do you want your community group or social enterprise to face the future with confidence?
- Do you want some support to start a new community group or social enterprise?

If so, we're here to help.

To find out more and to get the help you need, the first step is to contact the project in one of the following ways:
